

Father Andrew Missiras

The next priest to be appointed in early 1969 was Rev. Dr. Andrew Missiras, who served the local Church until August 1972. The son of a Church chanter and well educated. Father Andrew loves the Church, understands her problems, and is one of the top liturgists in this country. Also, because of his education, he understands the needs of the younger American-born generation. He speaks their language – both figuratively and literally. Although he has not been a priest here since 1972, he is still the Father of this Parish. Everyone calls on him when special occasions arise, and he is always available to share happy hours and sad hours with the local parishioners.
