

Rev. Father Constantine Regopoulos

The first priest appointed to this Parish was the Rev. Father Constantine Regopoulos, who had much to do with urging the local people to start a Church. Unfortunately, he could not accept the fact that, at that time, this was a very small Parish with a meager Church attendance, so he asked and was given a transfer after serving only a few months.